INTRODUCTION

How Like a Tree
Is Man's Pursuit of Truth,
Rising From the Darkness
And Seeking The Light
Through a Thousand Branches,
Yet All As One,
Inclining Toward The Sun.

—JAMES CARON

REV. EDWARD J. HARTMANN, C.S.B.

In Memoriam

The death of Father Hartmann was unexpected and sudden. He had gone about his work during the day, and in the evening had left for Detroit to attend a Veteran's dinner and reunion after which he planned to go to the parish assigned him for Sunday Masses. He mistook the first pains of a coronary thrombosis for indigestion, and instead of going on to his Sunday work, he deemed it advisable to rest a bit, and then return to Windsor. While he was being driven back, his condition became worse and in the early minutes of Sunday, April 28th death claimed him.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

The Chancellor
MOST REV. J. C. CODY, D.D., L.L.D., BISHOP OF LONDON

Everyone Is Talented

There is a bewildering diversity of talent in every country, in every city, even in every sizable family circle. Those who are less gifted have no reason to be envious of others better endowed because an all-wise Providence knows what is best for each and balances the score perfectly by the yard-stick: "To whomsoever much hath been given, of him shall much be required." (Luke XII, 48). There can be no quarrel with the trend to provide special classes and opportunities for the highly talented but how often do we see mediocre or even small talents steadily applied to a good cause produce far more fruit than sparkling talents left idle or divorced from life's true purpose, the glory of God. In the Parable of the Talents, note well, it was not the one who had received the five or the two talents who incurred the Master's anger but the servant who had received only one talent (Matt., XXV, 24), and instead of using it to good purpose, buried it. He is branded a "wicked and slothful servant" and cast "into the exterior darkness" symbolic of perdition. Genius being the exception rather than the rule, our country must depend most of all upon its unsung heroes—the rank and file. In our course of studies and all through our lives, may we by God's grace bear in mind that it is not how much talent we have but how well we use it that decides our entry and place in the heavenly hall of fame.

Devotedly yours in Christ,
Most Rev. J. C. Cody, D.D., L.L.D.,
Bishop of London.

President's Message

My Dear Students:

The development at Assumption University, which you can notice in almost every corner of the place, is similar to a development on all University campuses. Your elders are making every sacrifice to provide adequate staff and facilities to give you every opportunity to develop into an educated person.

In the days that lie ahead the problems of our complex world will be in your hands. Yours will be the responsibilities which lie so heavily on the shoulders of the men of today. To meet this challenge you must be thoroughly equipped intellectually and morally.

May each one of you accept the burden of being serious students today so that you may be the right kind of leaders tomorrow.

God bless you.

Student Administrative Council

Graduation draws near and the time has come to put our integral education, acquired here at Assumption, into practice. It is up to us as citizens of tomorrow to replace individualism and totalitarianism by a personalistic and communal civilization grounded on human rights and satisfying the social aspirations and needs of man. The rift between the social claim and the personal claim within man himself must be removed. Our sense of freedom and responsibility must give us the courage to take risks and exert authority for the general welfare and the respect for the humanity of each individual person. We must endeavour to bring to an end the cleavage between religious inspirations and the secular activity in man; the cleavage between work and the disinterested joy in knowledge and beauty. We must all work or share in the burden of the social community according to our own ability.

The task in which we must now engage cannot be minimized. It is a task of heroic friendship. The common work, both spiritual and material which we must all share must be greater than ourselves and to which we must truly give ourselves for the building of a nation with a Christian Civilization.

Au Revoir Assumption, — but not good-bye.

Albert G. Lugli.

CHECKING THE FINAL PROOFS

The theme of the year-book this year is the growth, development, and "branching out" of our University as symbolized by the tree on the cover. This growth was evident this past year as never before in our history and was carried out not only in the erection of new buildings but also in the growth of thought and new ways of instruction.

This year Assumption's five-man track and field team carried the university's colours into inter-collegiate competition. Although our team did not win any meets — winning an inter-collegiate meet with only a five man team would be a virtual impossibility — they gave a very fine account of themselves. Team-captain Paul Falardeau placed first in the intermediate one hundred, and two hundred yard dashes in meets in Seagram Stadium in Waterloo and in Varsity Stadium in Toronto. Richard O'Connor won intermediate pole vaulting honours in both these meets and Fred Roman finished right behind him in this event on both occasions. In the competition at Toronto Falardeau tied for individual scoring honors in the meet.

SOPHS CRUSH SENIORS IN FINAL

The Intramural football campaign was fiercely contested this season. Throughout the schedule the Sophomore and the Senior teams showed the most strength. Among the standouts for the Seniors were such seasoned veterans as big, burly Jerry Dittrich, Brian Moar and Jerry Cronin. John Lebel, Justin McCarthy and Chris McCaffery led the powerful Soph team. Carl Tremblay stood out for the Juniors as did Lucio Sandrin for the Frosh. Perhaps the best contest of the season was the titanic battle between the Sophs and Seniors which the Sophs won by the unbelievably low score of 2 to 1. The championship game, which was a rematch between these two powerful squads, was played on a bitterly cold Sunday afternoon. The Sophs proved their superiority by downing the hard-fighting Seniors by a score of 14 to 1.

ASSUMPTION UNIVERSITY LANCERS

This season, as was the case in the last three or four seasons, Assumption's varsity basketball squad had a successful campaign winning fifteen of their twenty-five games. In Ontario-Quebec Conference play they compiled a record of eight wins and two losses, which was good enough to earn them second place in the Conference. The Lancers suffered two losses to the obviously superior quintet from the University of Detroit, but managed to hold their own against their other American rivals with whom they were better matched. Against the Canadian clubs they did very well indeed except in their two meetings with the Toronto Varsity Blues.

The key man in this year's team was Jack Hool who provided the leadership which is always necessary to make a group of fine athletes into a well-organized and powerful team. He was a high scorer all through the season and played well on defense as well as doing a fine job of setting up plays. Jack ended his college career with a brilliant night against Western; he got over thirty points in that game. Rookie Gene Rizak also had a great year. He turned out to be a real high scorer; but his most memorable achievements were on defense. It was a very common sight to see Gene steal the ball and race down the court for a basket. Leapping Larry Francoeur was a tower of strength all season and along with veteran Mike Spang did a lot of rebounding even against the taller players on opposition clubs. Mr. Spang was a very steady performer, and although he was not a high scorer he was a valuable man to have around. Neil McEwan played some very fine games in the latter half of the season after he recovered from a ailment which kept him out of action for several games. Although Dick Mackenzie and Jerry Kotwas played some good games early in the season, they never did manage to regain their brilliant form of last season.

All in all it was a good season and Assumption has reason to be very proud of this Lancer squad.

CRUSADERS ROLL ON

Coach Ed Chittaro's Assumption Crusaders had a great season. They won the Intermediate Intercollegiate Basketball crown by nosing out the Western Colts in a real 'cliff-hanger' in the final game of the schedule. In addition to this, the Crusaders paced the field in the Windsor City League. Led by players like Leo Innocenti and George Nickson, the team had such fine Varsity prospects as Paul Valentine, Glen Girard, Chris McCaffery, Fred DeVriendt, Bernie Allen and Leo McKerrow. This was a fine team and indicates that next year's Lancers will have to be reckoned with in Conference play.

On January 21, in St. Denis Hall the Intramural basketball was begun. Right from the beginning, spirited competition developed among the seven teams which comprised the league this year. Participating on these seven teams were some ninety-odd men of all shapes, sizes and abilities. These students played for teams representing their respective classes. This tended to develop great rivalries among the classes, even though the main purpose of the league was to enable the students to have good clean fun, and a little exercise (which was very badly needed in some cases).

HOCKEY CHAMPS

The regular schedule of the Intramural Hockey season drew to a close with the Juniors, Sophs, and Frosh in the play-offs. The Seniors fought hard but didn't quite make it. The leading scorers were Gene Dziadura, Murray Costello, and Louie Lemay. Those also deserving of mention for their outstanding play were Paul Burry, Paul Renaud, Lou Pennachetti and Darcy Sheedy. The Sophmores were the real power-house and should be the champions. Our thanks go out to Joe Fields and his cohort for the fine job in refereeing the games. Mike Hurst the commissioner did an excellent job in seeing that this organization functioned smoothly.

The Holy Names Athletic Council has presented this year an extensive program of sports open to all girls attending the university. The program was well organized and functioned smoothly throughout the year. A womens bowling league began this year with eight teams participating. Tennis and basketball were also among the popular sports for the women.

Dedication . . .

In sincere dedication to Dr. J. E. Hett, who for many years served the people of this community. Who inspired them with his courage and willingness to give of himself to the health of his fellow men and his innate love of that giving. A man who truly exemplifies the virtues of a fine man: Loyalty, strength, merit, efficacy, valor, and who had a deep admiration for humanity, and in return was loved and admired by all.

THE RCAF

Big Business

The RCAF is Canada's biggest business — employing some $70,000 people and operating a billion dollar organization. It is a dynamic and expanding one in which application, knowledge and initiative are recognized and fully rewarded.

The aircrew officer works with the most advanced equipment — equipment that demands in its operation people with a developed capacity for learning.

a time of Decision

As a young man about to graduate from university you will soon be deciding upon your future. This decision if it is to be a sound one will require your careful assessment of all available opportunities, as well as your own potential.

The Royal Canadian Air Force has always offered challenging opportunities in air crew which have attracted university graduates from all faculties. Today, almost without exception, the officers in senior air force appointments are degree men, most of whom have risen to their present positions after entering the RCAF as pilots or observers.

With the expanded role, the advances being made in flying techniques and the heavier demands being placed on executive officers, the RCAF now offers even a greater challenge to the young man with a university background.

TODAY, the opportunities offered by Canada are greater than ever before. And, in step with these opportunities, our country's need for college graduates is equally great.

From the records established by previous students of Assumption University, we know there are none better trained in their chosen fields than you who are graduating this year. With such schooling, you can look forward with confidence to making important contributions to the broader horizons that lie ahead.

We are pleased to have this opportunity of saying a friendly "Hello" to each of you. With God's blessings, may you assume your individual place in Canada's great future with the confidence your schooling warrants.

.... THE FORWARD LOOK IS ANOTHER NAME FOR PROGRESS

One look at any of the five exciting new Forward Look cars as it rounds a corner and flashes brilliantly down the street is enough to convince you. Progress . . . and the Forward Look do mean virtually the same thing.

But this progress, as exemplified by the Forward Look is not confined only to the great advances in automotive styling with which you are familiar: It is expressed in many ways, and in many areas of Canadian life.

The Forward Look is symbolic of the dynamic growth that has made this nation rich with opportunity in every field of human endeavour.

The New Home of Holy Redeemer College

Holy Redeemer College

Holy Redeemer College is the major seminary of the Redemptorist Fathers for English-speaking Canada. It is located at 925 Cousineau Road West, just off Huron Line, about 5 miles from the University Campus.

Courses comprise 4 years of philosophy and arts, and 4 years of theology.

The College is staffed by 13 Redemptorist priests who teach the courses of theology, philosophy and arts. Economics, biology and French are taken at University and Essex Colleges.

The new College was designed by Barry Byrne and Parks of Evanston, Illinois. Structural, mechanical and electrical drawings for its construction were drawn up by Mr. Charles E. Gillin of London, Ontario. Eastern Construction Company, Windsor, erected the building.

Built of concrete block with brick face and limestone trim, the College comprises seven distinct units, and covers an area of 108,700 square feet. Tower and cross rise 108 ft. 6 in. above grade level. Fifty-seven students are in residence this year; there are accommodations at the present time for eighty-one. The library has a capacity of 50,000 volumes.

The Redemptorists are a Congregation of priests and brothers founded in Italy in the year 1732 by St. Alphonsus Mary de Liguori, Doctor of the Church. Their principal work is the preaching of missions, retreats and other extraordinary preaching assignments. For this purpose Redemptorists in English-speaking Canada maintain some 30 parishes and foundations with a rapidly growing mission field in Japan.

Holy Redeemer College is the Seminary of the Redemptorist Fathers

Students at Holy Redeemer come from every province in the Dominion and upon completion of studies will be assigned to mission work in one of the Redemptorist centers from St. John's, Newfoundland to Vancouver, B.C. Some will be sent to Japan, some will be posted for further study at universities in America or Europe.

Holy Redeemer College is very happy to be part of the new Assumption University of Windsor and intends to contribute in every possible way to the caliber, growth and prestige of the University.

I am grateful for the opportunity given me to extend the congratulations and best wishes of the people of the city of Windsor to Assumption University of Windsor.

Windsor and Essex County is indeed fortunate in having educational facilities of such high standards to meet the ever increasing demands for higher education for our boys and girls.

As you continue to grow and expand in accordance with accepted university practice by affiliating with liberal arts colleges and by adding new courses, you will continue to merit the respect and admiration of all our citizens.
